

SUMMARY

- As of 2012 I am 51 years old
- I reside in Nelson and practise in both Auckland and Nelson
- I was admitted to the bar in December 1989
- I have practised in litigation in Auckland and Nelson for 23 years
- I have been a barrister sole since 1998
- My areas of practice are primarily civil litigation family law and relationship property

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Arts degree in political science (Canterbury University, 1982)
- LLB degree (Victoria University, 1988)
- Master of Commercial Law degree (Auckland University, 1995)
- Institute of Professional Studies skills course
- Admission as a Solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand (Admission to the Bar)
- Current holder of a practising certificate from the New Zealand Law Society
- LEADR Accredited Mediator

Employment/self-employment

- I was employed as a staff solicitor by Martelli McKegg Wells & Cormack solicitors between 1989 and 1991
- I was employed as a staff solicitor by Jespersen Johnston & Askelund solicitors between 1991 and 1995
- I was a partner of Jespersen Locke solicitors between 1995 and 1998
- I commenced practised as a barrister sole in 1998 and have practised as such since that time

Areas of practice

- My practice has always comprised approximately equal number of briefs in the areas of civil proceedings on the one hand, and family law and relationship property on the other
- Civil briefs I have handled have spanned a wide range of subject matters, including:
 - estate claims (Family Protection Act, Law Reform (Testamentary Promises) Act, undue influence, lack of capacity
 - contract disputes
 - insurance disputes
 - agreements for sale and purchase of land
 - lease disputes
 - constructive trust claims
 - Fair Trading Act/misrepresentation claims
 - injunctions
 - defamation
 - application for partition and sale of joint tenancies
 - insolvency
 - creditors' remedies
 - debtor protection
 - company disputes
 - liquidations and bankruptcy, schemes of arrangement, applications to annul bankruptcy
 - leaky building litigation
 - tort claims
 - quasi-contract proceedings

I have done a considerable amount of leaky building litigation over the last 10 years, acting for claimants, builders, developers, tradesmen, etc.

- Family and relationship property briefs I have handled cover the usual range of:
 - matrimonial and relationship property
 - spousal maintenance
 - child support reviews

Continued over >

Areas of practice continued

- care of children
- guardianship
- domestic violence
- paternity
- Family Protection/Testamentary Promises claims

Miscellaneous

- I am on the counsel for child list of, and have received briefs from, the Waitakere, Manukau, Auckland, and Nelson Family Courts. I have been qualified as counsel for child for over 10 years
- I am on the list of mediators able to accept appointments from the Family Courts to carry out counsel-led mediations
- I am accredited LEADR-trained mediator
- I have presented three seminars for the legal publisher LexisNexis; two in the areas of relationship property and one in the area of leaky building disputes

Funding arrangements

- The Lawyers and Conveyancers Act requires contracts of retainer to be entered into between solicitor and client; I have a precedent appropriate for the appointment of counsel
- My usual charge out rate is $300 per hour plus GST, however this is subject to review depending upon the nature of the brief and the particular client's circumstances

Professional liability insurance

I carry professional liability insurance to a maximum cover of $1,000,000 in claims in any one year (a maximum of two claims, to a maximum of $500,000 each). No claims have been made against my professional liability insurance or that of any firm I have been employed by in respect of any matter I have handled in my 23 years of practice.